Our Stance

The Manchester Tamil Association is a non-political, non-profit, cultural organisation for Tamils living in and around the Greater Manchester area. We actively support cultural and social integration. At the same time, we emphasise that our children should understand, learn and preserve the rich heritage of Tamil culture and the Tamil language - the association always strives hard for this through its various cultural and social activities.

As of 4th of June 2017, the MTA became a new constitution. The four main purposes of this were:

To incorporate a new structure, due to the growth of the school
